Yuma County.

From the Yuma Sentinel.

Frank D. Wells, Justice of the Peace at Harrisburg, was in town Sunday. He reports the mining interests in that section to be booming.

J. H. Behan went to Los Angeles Tuesday to consult with Dr. Ainsworth. Mr. R. improved while here, but thought best to consult with his old friend.

Every train nearly carries through to San Francisco, from ten to fifty bars of silver and gold. The shipments from all parts of Arizona are on the increase.

The Colorado river on December 15 showed the same depth of water that it did a year ago on December 15, viz. 19 feet. Yesterday the gauge showed 18 feet.

Christmas Day. Lemons in bloom, and ripe fruit on the same tree. Oranges and limes ripe. Figs, the fourth crop, ripe, nice and sweet, in several gardens in Yuma.

The representatives from abroad who were summoned to Phoenix on the United States Grand Jury feel themselves under many obligations to W. A. Davis, of that city, who did everything within his power to render their stay pleasant and agreeable.

The Yuma delegation on the Grand Jury returned from Phoenix well pleased with what they saw and more so with their reception and treatment at the hands of the people of the Capitol City. They speak in the highest terms of the good order of the place due to the able manner in which Marshal Blankenship handles the would-be rough elements of the town.
